

The effervescent Verdejo of Cuatro Rayas Winery

According to the proverb, 'all good things come in three', Cuatro Rayas Winery repeats the success with an unconventional 100% Verdejo wine. '61' Fizzante 5.5 is an effervescent Verdejo, which completes the range '61 Sixty-one' along with the prestigious '61' Dorado and the amazing '61' Verdejo Vermouth. The biggest winery in DO Rueda thus joins the partially fermented must products so high-demanded in the market; so far, frizzante wines produced by the winery in La Seca, as Dolce Bianco, were indeed considered wine, since they have 8% alcohol content.

Naturally produced with a selection of Verdejo grapes and stopping the fermentation with cold shock at 5.5°. This young frizzante is named '61' after the first brand bottled in Cuatro Rayas Winery back in the 50's.

- Winemaking: Made of 100% Verdejo variety. Partial fermentation of must. Cold preservation until bottling.
- Variety: 100% Verdejo.
- Alcohol 5.5%.
- Straw yellow colour, bright.
- Peach and citrus fruit aromas, accompanied with pleasant bubbles.
- Very refreshing and lively on the palate, it shows hints of peach and a gentle sweetness.
- It is a perfect aperitif when served very cold (5°C). It pairs with a wide range of dishes: pasta, Asian cuisine and desserts.

TECHNICAL INSTRUCTIONS:

Storage Conditions: Store in a place below 20°C. Best before two years.

Shipping Conditions: Transport under dry and right temperature conditions.

Allergens: Sulphites 10 < mg/kg 'contains sulphites' on the label. GMO free.